Sacramento County Man Convicted of Possession of Methamphetamine for Sale

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County District Attorney Jeff Reisig announced that on July 10, 2009, a Yolo County jury found Keith Charles Schultz guilty of Transportation of Methamphetamine and Possession of Methamphetamine for Sale. The jury further found true the allegations that Mr. Schultz had suffered a prior conviction for Possession of Methamphetamine for Sale and served a prison term for that conviction. The Honorable Judge Paul Richardson found true an allegation that Mr. Schultz had suffered a prior conviction for assault on a person with a deadly weapon which qualifies as a strike offense. The charges in this case stemmed from a 2007 traffic stop in which Mr. Schultz possessed 3.82 grams of methamphetamine and $2192.

Sentencing is scheduled for August 7, 2009 in front of the Honorable Judge Paul Richardson. Due to Mr. Schultz's prior criminal record, he is facing a maximum of 12 years in prison.
