Library Branches will be Closed over Thanksgiving Holidays

(Woodland, CA) – Due to general state and local funding shortfalls resulting in employee furloughs and reduced hours, all Yolo County branch libraries will be closed on Thanksgiving day and the day following – November 26 and 27 respectively. Included with branch closures will be the closure of associated book drops. As a result of the closure, due dates on library materials due during the closure will be extended to November 28 at all branches. All Yolo County branch libraries will resume regular hours on November 28.
