Volunteers Needed For Novel H1N1 Vaccine Clinics

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Health Department, in partnership with the cities of Davis, West Sacramento, Woodland and Winters, is holding a series of free Novel H1N1 flu vaccination clinics this week and next (details below). Volunteers with a variety of skills are needed to staff these clinics. Volunteer opportunities include:

- Runners – assist all staff by helping clients, getting/delivering supplies, providing breaks for staff
- Traffic Control & Interior Security – work with uniformed officers to provide security services at each site
- Inventory Control – keep track of all vaccines, supplies, etc. on site
- Paperwork Collection – work with clients to ensure that all medical records are collected and information materials are given
- Translation – assist clients with alternate language needs
- Triage – meet clients and provide information
- Medical Screening – assist clients by identifying the vaccine they are eligible for at the site

Volunteering to help at vaccine clinics can count towards high school community service hours. For more information or to sign up, e-mail: volunteer.coordinator@yolocounty.org.
