Winters Murderer Sentenced to Life in Prison

(Woodland, CA) – District Attorney Jeff Reisig announced that on January 22, 2010, the Honorable Paul Richardson sentenced convicted murderer Felipe Cruz Hernandez to 15 years-to-life in state prison.

On December 22, at the conclusion of a trial that lasted almost six weeks, a unanimous jury in the Yolo County Superior Court found Felipe Cruz Hernandez guilty for the murder of his wife, Leticia Barrales Ramos. Ms. Barrales Ramos, a 28-year-old mother, went missing from her home in Winters on April 12, 2009. The last person known to have seen and talked to her was her husband, Felipe Cruz Hernandez.
