PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

FIFTH SUSPECT ARRESTED FOR GANG ASSAULT ON AMTRAK ENGINEER

Woodland, CA – September 26, 2007 - On August 11, 2007, a Yolo County Grand Jury indicted five suspected Broderick Boy Gang Members for an attack on two Amtrak personnel that occurred on April 16, 2007 in the City of West Sacramento. The suspects were charged with Attempted Murder, Assault with a Deadly Weapon, Attempted Robbery, Vandalism, and Criminal Street Gang Activity.

One suspect, Pauliton Nunes, had remained at large since the April 16th incident. He was captured by police in Sacramento this last weekend and is now in custody in the Yolo County Jail.

Arraignment on the indictment for Pauliton Nunes will be on September 27, 2007 at 1:30 p.m. in Department 9 of the Yolo County Superior Court.
