Yolo County Booth Wins Silver at State Fair

(Woodland, CA) – This year, Yolo County took home the Silver Medal for its California State Fair booth in the counties' exhibit competition with the theme: "Yolo County – A Multi-Faceted Jewel." Out of the 30 participating counties, Yolo County's unique exhibit impressed the judges with its vivid, larger-than-life map showcasing the many experiences available within Yolo County.

This year's State Fair's theme is: "Your Passport to Adventure." Yolo County's booth highlights the free and mostly rural adventures that are available within the county. It emphasizes Yolo County's unique attractions, such as the Davis Farmers Market, wine tasting venues and farm tours throughout the county, and much more.

Yolo County was unable to participate in the 2009 State Fair exhibit competition due to budget constraints. This year's display was made possible thanks to generous donations from the Yolo Natural Heritage Program, the Yolo County Farm Bureau, the Yolo County Visitors Bureau, YoloArts, Yolo County Supervisor Duane Chamberlain, the Cache Creek Casino, UC Davis, the Davis Farmers Market, and Chuck and Judy Dudley.

"We are so very grateful to all our generous donors for their contributions which have allowed us to be represented at this year's California State Fair," said Yolo County Board of Supervisors Chairwoman Helen M. Thomson. "The State Fair provides the perfect opportunity to promote the agricultural and tourism attractions that make Yolo County so special."
