SACRAMENTO VALLEY RED FOX

KREITH

Mark Statham, who has a Ph.D. in Genetics and Ecology and is a Postdoctoral Research Scholar at UC Davis, collaborated in the recently completed research project on the Sacramento Valley red fox that was reported in the Sacramento Bee on January 2, 2010. The red fox are found in our neighborhood, and have dens in the North Fork of Putah Creek. Dr. Statham will summarize his research and findings and what we should know or appreciate about the red fox we see in our neighborhood.

PENDING APPLICATION OF RESULTS RADIO, LLC

COOLURIS

Report on the December 10, 2009 hearing before the Yolo County Planning Commission and the current status of the application for the construction and operation of a 335' radio broadcast tower by Results Radio, LLC near Mace Boulevard about 0.75 mile south of Montgomery Avenue.

CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEES

PROVENZA

A number of Citizens' Advisory Committees have been created in Yolo County for the purpose of affording a community the opportunity to review and make recommendations on proposed development projects that would require the approval of the Yolo County Planning Commission, the Board of Supervisors or the Planning & Public Works Department. We will be briefed on the function and operation of such committees and how they are formed.
