Sacramento Man Sentenced to 13 years for Robbery of Jo-Ann Fabrics & Gifts in Woodland

(Woodland, CA) – February 28, 2011-Yolo County District Attorney Jeff Reisig announced today that on February 25, 2011 Yolo County Superior Court Judge David Rosenberg sentenced 33-year-old Sacramento man Anthony David Urbano to 13 years in state prison.

On December 19, 2008, Urbano went to Jo-Ann's Fabrics in Woodland. He entered the store to ask for directions and had a short conversation with two of the store employees. Urbano left only to return a short time later but this time he said he wanted to buy some wrapping paper. During the sale Urbano told the employee that this was a hold up and demanded all the money in the register and then showed store employees a revolver. Urbano fled the store but left behind his fingerprints on the wrapping paper.

A jury convicted Urbano of second degree Robbery with a firearm on September 23, 2010.
