THE WARMTH OF OTHER SUNS

Isabel Wilkerson combines a sweeping historical narrative with three gripping, personal life stories. Wilkerson, a Pulitzer Prize winning author, won the 2011 National Book Critics Circle Award for The Warmth of Other Suns and is on the New York Times list of Ten Best Books for 2010.

The Warmth of Other Suns appeals to a broad readership. In recounting the lives of African American migrants and their reception in Northern cities, Wilkerson deals with migration, racism, integration and diversity in ways that can help readers gain new insights into these issues today. She analyzes injustices and barriers to the economic and social advancement of African Americans. But she also presents a story of courage, personal triumph and hope.

Historian Krystyna von Henneberg will introduce and lead a discussion about Isabel Wilkerson's The Warmth of Other Suns: The Epic Story of America's Great Migration.

Many copies of the book are now available! Look for The Warmth of Other Suns on the Classics Shelf at the Davis Branch Library.
