Tour the Yolo County Archives on June 11

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Archives, located at 226 Buckeye Street in Woodland, will offer a special “behind-the-scenes” view of the county archives on Saturday, June 11 with one-hour tours at 10:00 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. Items on display will include the first Board of Supervisors minutes from 1850, and the marks and brands of early Yolo County cattle ranchers.

“This is a unique opportunity to explore Yolo County’s history and see how our archives staff preserves documents and photographs for generations to come,” said Yolo County Board of Supervisors Chair Matt Rexroad.

Yolo County Archivist Moira Conlan will lead the tours of the archival vault highlighting rare and unique collections. Space in each tour is limited. RSVP by June 9 or for more information contact Moira Conlan at archives@yolocounty.org or (530) 666-8010.
