Chocolate, Chess and Snakes in July at the West Sacramento Library

(Woodland, CA) – Visit Yolo County’s Arthur F. Turner Community Library in West Sacramento in July for some exciting programming from around the world, including chocolate tasting, chess playing and meeting exotic animals.

Starting with the unique world of Japanese comics, teens are invited to share their love of manga on the huge library screen on July 5 at 2:00 p.m. with the movie, Manga! Manga! Manga!

On July 12 at 2:00 p.m., celebrate India with local author, Sudesh Singal, who will talk about her recently published book Moongi and Mohan: A Story from India as Told to Me by My Mother. Crafts will follow, including henna tattoos.

All ages are also welcome on July 13 at 5:00 p.m. when the Arthur F. Turner Community Library holds its first Chess Night. Join for a fun evening of chess, checkers and backgammon.

On July 19 at 2:00 p.m., learn about the reptile kingdom with Python Ron and his reptiles from around the world. Python Ron tailors each presentation to suit a wide variety of age groups, so everyone attending has an enjoyable and educational experience.

To learn what happens when a witch who cannot follow a recipe tries to make soup, come for the puppet show, “Witches Brew,” on July 23 at 10:30 a.m.

Special July programs at the Arthur F. Turner Community Library in West Sacramento conclude on July 25 at 4:00 p.m. with a treat loved all over the world: A Celebration of Chocolate. History, stories and a tasting will be included. Children and families of all ages are invited to attend this delicious program celebrating the joys of chocolate.

Look out for more exciting summer programs in August. In the meantime, Yolo County’s Arthur F. Turner Community Library, located at 1212 Merkley Avenue in West Sacramento looks forward to seeing you in July. Call (916) 375-6465 for more information or visit: www.yolocountylibrary.org.
