Yolo Library Open August 6 for Community Celebration

(Woodland, CA) – In honor of the Yolo County Library system’s 100 year anniversary, and to join in the community of Yolo’s first-ever community celebration, the Yolo Branch Library, located at 37750 Sacramento Street in Yolo, will be hosting special activities on Saturday, August 6, 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon.

On August 6, all are invited to visit the Yolo Branch Library, get a library card and tour the two-room Carnegie building which is listed on the National Historic Register. The library will host games, a petting zoo and other events for children, as well as provide regular library services. The Yolo County Archivist will also be available to chat about local history and services available through the Yolo County Archives.

“Over the past year, we have enjoyed many events in honor of providing over 100 years of library services in Yolo County,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “We are pleased to cap off this year-long celebration by being a part of Yolo’s first-ever community celebration.”

For more information, contact the Yolo Branch Library (530) 662-2363.
