Multicultural Neighbors Fair & Parade Seeking Volunteers and Vendors

(Woodland, CA) –The Multicultural Neighbors Fair and Parade, to be held in West Sacramento on Saturday, October 1, is seeking volunteers and vendors. The Multicultural Neighbors Fair and Parade will showcase the cultural diversity and pride of the West Sacramento community. The fair is expected to include food, performances, products and information booths, all related to the local community. The parade will feature a variety of community groups. Volunteers will assist in various aspects of running the fair and parade and both non-profit and for profit vendors will operate booths.

The Multicultural Neighbors Fair and Parade will begin at 10:00 a.m. on October 1 with a parade along Merkley Avenue and ending in front of City Hall in West Sacramento where several celebrity judges will award ribbons in several categories. Activities will continue at 12:00 noon with the multicultural fair in the location of the current Farmers Market across from City Hall.

“This is a fun event to volunteer for, and a great opportunity to display or sell your cultural products,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “Please consider helping us showcase West Sacramento’s cultural diversity and pride.”

The Multicultural Neighbors Fair and Parade is presented by the West Sacramento Family Literacy Coalition (WSFLC) in collaboration with the Neighbors Fair and Parade. The WSFLC is made up of representatives from a wide spectrum of agencies in West Sacramento engaged in family literacy activities and support, and is funded by a grant from the Institute of Museum and Library Services, awarded to the Arthur F. Turner Community Library branch of Yolo County Library.
