Community Singers at West Sacramento Library Nov. 6

(Woodland, CA) – On Sunday, November 6, 3:00 to 4:00 p.m., the Yolo County Library, as part of its family programming this fall, will host the West Sacramento Community Singers in the Community Room of the Arthur F. Turner Community Library's, located at 1212 Merkley Avenue in West Sacramento.

“We welcome families to join us for this interactive afternoon concert featuring local singers with the West Sacramento Community Singers,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong.

The West Sacramento Community Singers is dedicated to providing a place for singers of all ages and musical ability to gather and perform for the benefit and cultural enrichment of the greater Sacramento community. Anyone over the age of 18 is welcome to join the group and members do not need to know how to read music nor are they required to live in West Sacramento.

The November 6 concert at the Arthur F. Turner Community Library will last approximately an hour and will be interactive. A broad variety of enjoyable songs for families to enjoy, covering several different eras including “The Lion Sleeps Tonight” and the “Book of Love” from the 1950s, will be performed.
