

OK, you have decided that you want join Team Yolo in the Race for the Cure now what do you do.

If you internet access log on to www.komensacramento.org

Under the Susan G Komen Race for the Cure you will see a ribbon with different headings Click on Komen Race for the Cure

And you will get a dropdown menu and click on Teams

Scroll down the page and under the first picture you will find the option to click here to Join a team or make a Team donation

You are almost there - this is the site where all the teams are list in alphabetical order by team name.

Your team name is Team Yolo so you want to scroll down almost to the end of the page and you will find Team Yolo. Next to our team name you will see a pink button to click on the button if you want to donate. Next to that you will see the captain's name and how many team members we have so far. On the far right you will see Join team in blue click on that to be a registered member of the team.

Donations- any amount no matter how large or small helps make a difference
