Author Event October 19 at Davis Branch Library

(Woodland, CA) – The Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 East 14th Street in Davis, welcomes bestselling author Christopher Phillips on Friday, October 19, 7:00 p.m. to 9:00p.m. in the Blanchard Room, to discuss his book, Constitution Café: Jefferson’s Brew for a True Revolution.

“Join us in welcoming Dr. Phillips for a community-engaging conversation,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong.

“Constitution Café is a space in which actual and aspiring Americans grapple with how they would sculpt the United States Constitution if they could start from scratch,” said author Christopher Phillips.

Dr. Phillips travels the country engaging Americans to talk about the Constitution. Following the successful format of his 2011 book, Constitution Café: Jefferson’s Brew for a True Revolution, Dr. Phillips encourages communities to better understand and challenge our most fundamental freedoms. Constitution Café is dedicated to the Jeffersonian notion of freedom, life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

Book sales and signing courtesy of the Avid Reader will follow the program.

No reservations are required. The Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library is accessible for persons with disabilities. Funding for this free event is generously provided by the Friends of the Davis Public Library.
