Annual Yolo County Creek Cleanup Day September 15 Keeping Our Waterways Clean

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County’s Creek Cleanup Day will be held on Saturday, September 15, 9:00 a.m. to noon, at various sites throughout Yolo County as part of the California Coastal Commission’s 28th annual California Coastal Cleanup Day, the largest volunteer trash cleanup in the world.

This statewide event will take place at more than 800 locations around California. Volunteers will remove debris that has accumulated on California’s beaches, creeks and inland shorelines.

“This is a great event to involve families, community groups, clubs and all those interested in caring for and protecting their local water bodies,” said Yolo County Board of Supervisors Chair Jim Provenza. “For students, it is also an opportunity to earn community service hours.”

Cleanup sites in Yolo County include the Cache Creek Nature Preserve, City of Davis ponds, Putah Creek sites near Winters, the Barge Canal in West Sacramento and Lake Washington and at the Clarksburg Boat Ramp. The cleanup day is being organized and supported by Yolo County Planning & Public Works Division of Integrated Waste Management, Cache Creek Conservancy, City of Davis, Putah Creek Council, Putah Creek Trout, River City Rowing Club, Lake Washington Sailing Club, Delta Protection Commission and Yolo County Flood Control and Water Conservation District.

Those wanting to volunteer are encouraged to wear long pants, closed-toe shoes, gloves and sunscreen and should bring their own bucket or reusable bag for collecting trash. Trash will ultimately be emptied into large trash receptacles.
