2nd Annual Día de los Muertos Celebration October 30

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County’s Winters Community Library and the Winters High School Personas del Mundo club invite all members of the community to the Second Annual Día de los Muertos Celebration on Tuesday, October 30, 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in the Margaret Parsons Room of the Winters Community Library.

This year’s event will pay special homage to authors and library supporters who have passed during the last year. Activities will include music, guest speakers, sugar skull decorating, nail art, calavera face painting and antojitos (light snacks and refreshments).

The public is welcome to place offerings of flowers, photographs, bread and other symbolic offerings for loved ones who have passed away on the community altar which will be on display October 17 through November 14.

“We are proud to honor Día de los Muertos as a part of our ongoing efforts to celebrate the diversity, rich culture and contributions of our Latino and Native American communities,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “Please join our celebration on October 30th.”

All Yolo County Library programs are free of charge. The Winters Community Library is located at 708 Railroad Avenue in Winters. To learn more about Yolo County Library programs and services, visit: www.yolocountylibrary.org or like us on Facebook: www.facebook.com/yolocountylibrary.org.
