

California Food Recall Information

Recall Name

Hines Nut Company Recalls Salted Jumbo Virginia In-Shell Peanuts Due to Possible Salmonella Contamination

Recall Date	Product Description	Recalling Firm	Recall Reason
10/15/12	Salted Jumbo Virginia In-Shell Peanuts – HINES or Dollar General Clover Valley labels	Hines Nut Co Dallas, TX	Possible Salmonella contamination (Recalled peanuts were provided by Sunland Inc. who recently expanded their recall of peanut and peanut products)
Recall Class	Product Identification	Distribution	Affected Dates
N/A	HINES: cello / poly laminated bag, predominately blue, with a yellow label stating “SALTED JUMBO VIRGINIA PEANUTS” <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sizes: 8 oz., 10oz., 12oz., 16 oz., and 24 oz. HINES: also packed three “theme” cello / poly laminated bags <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Size: 5.5 oz. Independence Day theme (red, white and blue with a stylized flag on front) Football Season theme (football on the front) Hunting Season theme (camouflage motif on the front of the bag) Dollar General Clover Valley: cello / poly laminated bag <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Size: 8 oz. List of Products Affected	Nationwide including CA Distributed under HINES or Dollar General Clover Valley label	May not have printed expiration dates Distributed during the six month period prior to the recall date (April 12, 2012 – October 12, 2012) Best buy/expiration dates on the packaging from October 12, 2012 through August 27, 2013.

FOR ADDITIONAL INFORMATION, PLEASE VISIT:
<http://www.fda.gov/Safety/Recalls/ucm323984.htm?source=govdelivery>