Shen Yun at Davis and West Sacramento Branch Libraries in December

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Library’s Davis and West Sacramento branches will present, “A Talk on Shen Yun” on December 1 and 8, respectively. Come learn how the Shen Yun Performing Arts company performs classical Chinese dance, ethnic and folk dance, and story-based dance that has inspired countless Chinese artists.

Based in New York, Shen Yun Performing Arts was established in 2006 with the mission of reviving 5,000 years of divinely inspired Chinese culture. Preceding their January 2 and 3 performances in Sacramento, the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 East 14th Street in Davis, will host the talk on Shen Yun, presented by volunteers with the San Francisco Falun Buddha Study Association, on December 1, 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. and the Arthur F. Turner Community Library, located at 1212 Merkley Avenue in West Sacramento, will host the presentation on December 8, 10:00 to 11:00 a.m.

“Join us and experience the authenticity, freshness and joy of the true Chinese civilization as we move toward a world of ever increasing diversity,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong.

Presented by the Yolo County Library, all programs are free with no reservations required. Yolo County Library facilities are accessible for persons with disabilities.
