Play & Learn Workshops at the Davis Branch Library

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County's Mary L. Stephens Branch Library, located at 315 East 14th Street in Davis, will host a five-part parenting workshop series for children age 1-3 and their parents. The series will be held 1:30 to 2:45 p.m. on the following five Saturday: February 9, February 16, February 23, March 2, and March 9.

Preschoolers and their caregivers will have the opportunity to play together with developmentally appropriate toys, learn together with children's health and developmental resource guests, and get to know other parents in the community with like-aged children. Dramatic play, music and art, gross and fine motor skills, as well as books and puppet play will be incorporated into the series. Presenters will include a nutritionist, preschool yoga instructor, child psychologist, a teacher of literature and literacy and a mystery presenter. Due to the focus on young children, older siblings may not attend.

"The library is pleased to be able to support and encourage parents to be their child's first and most important teacher," said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong.

This series is sponsored by First 5 Yolo, Family Place Libraries and Yolo County Library. The workshop is free, however registration is required and space is limited. The workshop will be held in the Activities Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library which is accessible for persons with disabilities. For more information or to register, contact Peggy Rollins at peggy.rollins@yolocounty.org or call (530) 757-5593 ext. 4.
