Constance Caldwell M.D. Appointed Health Officer

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Board of Supervisors is pleased to announce the appointment of Constance Caldwell, MD as Yolo County’s Health Officer. Dr. Caldwell has been serving as Interim Health Officer since April 2012.

Prior to this appointment, Dr. Caldwell served as a physician for the Yolo County Health Department for the past seven years, which included being the medical consultant for the California Children's Services program. She has also served as medical consultant to Mendocino County's California Children's Services program for the past 12 years. Prior to that, Dr. Caldwell worked for Redwood Coast Regional Center in Ukiah and was in clinical Pediatric practice in Ukiah and Oakland. Dr. Caldwell received her medical degree from the University of California, San Francisco and her masters from the University of California, Berkeley. She served her pediatric residency at Children's Hospital of San Francisco.

“Yolo County will be well served by Dr. Caldwell’s clinical skills and experience, passion for public health and long-time commitment to serving the residents of Yolo County,” said Yolo County Board of Supervisors Chair Duane Chamberlain.

"My family has lived in Yolo County for over ten years now. I am happy for this opportunity to continue to serve our community in the position of Health Officer," said Constance Caldwell, MD. "I look forward to working with Health Director Jill Cook and the entire Yolo County team as we work toward enhancing the quality of life for all in Yolo County."

The Health Officer position is a 0.5 full time equivalent (FTE) position with an annual salary range of $142,584-173,316. Dr. Caldwell will also continue in her capacity as a 0.5 FTE physician for the Yolo County Health Department, a position with an annual salary range of $117,768-143,148.
