Yolo County DA Hosts Victim Services Fair

This educational and entertaining event will be this Thursday

(Woodland, CA) – April 23, 2013 - Yolo County District Attorney Jeff Reisig and the District Attorney Victim Services Program will hold its first Victim Services Fair this Thursday, April 25, 2013. The Victim Services Fair will provide the Yolo County community with information about the resources available to victims of crime and what steps people can take if they or a loved one needs help after a robbery or assault or other violent crime.

Many agencies from all over California will be providing information at the event and will be available to answer questions from the public. Some of the organizations joining Yolo County District Attorney Victim Services include, the Yolo County Sexual Assault & Domestic Violence Center (SADVC), McGeorge School of Law and Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD).

There will also be a Rape Aggression Defense (R.A.D.) demonstration from UCD Police Department beginning at 4:30pm. After the demonstration, Kevin Twitchell and Peter Franklin will be playing classic rock, country/western and Hawaiian music. The resource fair will be held at E Street Plaza in Davis on April 23, 2013 from 4:30pm to 7pm. The public is encouraged to join the DA's office for this educational and entertaining event.
