Bon Appetit! Fast French Cooking at the Davis Library

(Woodland, CA) – Join Julie and Julie (Julie Cross and Julie Loke of the Davis Food Co-op) for a delightful cooking lesson based on Julie Powell’s bestselling memoir, Julie and Julia, on Thursday, July 18 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library located at 314 East 14th Street in Davis. In the book, the author resolves to reclaim her life by cooking all 524 recipes in Julia Child’s legendary Mastering the Art of French Cooking within in a single year. Co-op staff will take their cue from this and demonstrate how to prepare simple, yet elegant dishes based on seasonal produce. See how it’s done, try samples and take home the recipes.

This event is part of the Yolo County Library’s 2013 Summer Reading Program. “We’re excited about this year’s theme, Reading is so Delicious,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “Connecting books and reading with the everyday activities of cooking and eating reminds us of how literacy is fundamental. We are pleased that we can partner with the Davis Co-op to help bring this connection to life.”

Can’t make the Davis program? This event will also be held on Thursday, July 25 at 6:30 p.m. at the Esparto Regional Library, located at 17605 Yolo Avenue in Esparto and on Thursday, August 15 at 6:00 p.m. at the Clarksburg Branch Library, located at 52915 Netherlands Road in Clarksburg.

No reservations are required. The Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Branch Library is accessible for persons with disabilities. Presented by the Yolo County Library, all programs free. Support for this program is generously provided by the Friends of the Davis Library.
