Free Financial Aid Workshop for College Bound Teens January 12

(Woodland, CA) – The Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library will host a free financial aid workshop for teens and their parents on Sunday, January 12 from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. Independent college adviser and owner of Davis-based The Right College for You, Jennifer Borenstein, will speak to college-bound teens and their parents about the financial aid process and changes in the application process this year. She will address the different types of federal, state and private aid options, who is eligible and how and when to apply for financial aid.

“With the rising cost of higher education, college-bound teens and their parents need to be informed about all the financial support options available to them,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “They can start their information gathering by attending this free workshop on January 12, specifically designed to help teen college applicants navigate the often complex financial aid process.”

The workshop will be held in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library which is accessible for persons with disabilities. Participants are encouraged to bring something with which to take notes and to sign up early as space is limited. Reservations will be taken beginning January 2 and can be made by calling (530) 757-5598, e-mailing DavisLibrary@yolocounty.org or at the library information desk.
