Natalie A. Dillon Appointed Child Support Services Director

(Woodland, CA) – Yolo County Administrator Patrick Blacklock has announced the appointment of Natalie A. Dillon as Director of the Department of Child Support Services. Ms. Dillon will be filling the position previously held by recently retired Director, Mark Jones. Since 2012, she has served as the Assistant Director for the department.

Natalie Dillon has over 20 years of experience in child support and social service programs. She is past president and board member of the Western Interstate Child Support Enforcement Council and a recipient of the Intergovernmental Cooperation Award from the American Society for Public Administrators.

“Ms. Dillon brings to the county child support department substantial local, statewide and national experience both developing and providing services that will directly benefit the children and families living in our community,” said Yolo County Administrator Patrick Blacklock. “In addition to her strong programmatic background, I have great confidence that her enthusiasm and leadership skills will foster additional opportunities to collect support for Yolo County families.”

Prior to her recent tenure with Yolo County, Ms. Dillon was the Deputy Director for the Child Support Directors Association of California and spent eight years working for the Yolo County Department of Employment & Social Services in various programs and capacities. She holds a bachelor of arts degree in International Relations, with a minor in Sociology from the University of California at Davis.

“I am deeply honored the county selected me as director, and for the opportunity to lead such a talented and dedicated group of individuals,” said Yolo County Director of Child Support Services Natalie Dillon. “I am absolutely committed to providing top quality service to the children and families we have been entrusted to serve.

Dillon assumed her new responsibilities on December 16, 2013. The annual salary range for this position is $123,816 - $150,504.
