Mystery Game Night For Tweens, Hosted By Tweens

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Library’s Mary L. Stephens Branch in Davis is pleased to present a night of mystery and books for “tweens” (pre-teens). The program will take place in the Blanchard Room of the library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis, on Friday, March 14, from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. This event is free and open to youth between the ages of 9 and 12, or in grades 4 through 6.

Participants can expect a fun-filled evening of sleuthing and snacks. Tweens will solve mysteries during this program using books that were inspired by the board game Clue.

“The tween years are a time when many youth may want to become more proactive in their communities,” says Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “Mystery Game Night for Tweens is a great way for this age group to have fun, meet new peers and test the waters of community involvement.”

Mystery Game Night is hosted by the library’s new Tween Interest Group, TWIG. TWIG was recently launched by several tweens who wanted to be more active participants in the Yolo County Library. TWIG is facilitated by a parent and several teen mentors. TWIG strives to give tweens a more active voice in the library and the community. TWIG is open to all area youth, age 9 to 12, or in grades 4 through 6. To learn more about TWIG, contact the library at DavisLibrary@yolocounty.org.
