

March 2014 Gardening Classes in Woodland

The Hannah and Herbert Bauer Community Garden is hosting "Gardening 101" classes in March 2014!!

Saturday, March 15th 10-11 am

Wednesday, March 19th 5:15- 6:15 pm

- ❖ Learn the basics of starting a summer/fall garden
- ❖ No gardening experience required, only an interest in gardening
- ❖ Topics include planting techniques, soil use, and introduction to integrative pest management (pesticide free approaches to gardening)
- ❖ Bring gloves and shoes that can get a little dirty in the garden

Classes taught by Yolo County Master Gardeners

Join us for these FREE classes!

Class Location: Yolo County Health Department Community garden, 137 N. Cottonwood Ave, West of the building. We will meet inside the garden gates on the cement pad.

To register (required): Please contact Rebecca Tryon, garden coordinator, at 530-666-8640 or via email at Rebecca.tryon@yolocounty.org to sign up. Heavy rain cancels the classes.

Community gardens increase access to healthy foods, strengthen community relationships, provide a way for residents to be active outdoors, and offer enriching educational opportunities. Contact the garden coordinator to learn more about the garden programs and available plots.
