Celebrate the Turner Community Library on October 11

(Woodland, CA) – This fall, the Yolo County Library’s Arthur F. Turner Community Library in West Sacramento will be celebrating five years in its current location with an anniversary party on October 11 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m. The community is invited to attend and enjoy good food, good company and a great line up of events.

The celebration will begin at 1:00 p.m. with remarks scheduled for 2:00 p.m. Later in the afternoon, there will be a special story time with Mike on the Mic and an appearance by Dinger from the Sacramento Rivercats. The day’s activities will also include crafts and activities, free books for youth and bilingual Spanish/English and Russian/English story times. Clifford the Big Red Dog and his friend Emily Elizabeth will also be on hand to greet and mingle with guests and guided tours of the library will be offered throughout the afternoon.

“The support of the community has been essential in shaping the services of the Arthur F. Turner Community Library,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “This will be an opportunity for community members to celebrate and learn more about their public library.”

Over the past five years, the number of people using the library has more than doubled, and two and a half times more people are attending library programs. In 2014 alone, over 316,000 people visited the Arthur F. Turner Community Library.

“Our community has shown their support for the library by volunteering almost 1,000 hours more in 2014 than five years ago,” said Yolo County Supervisor Oscar Villegas. “Thank you West Sacramento!”

The Arthur F. Turner Community Library is located at 1212 Merkley Avenue in West Sacramento and all programs are free.
