Sookie Stackhouse Halloween Party Cooking Demonstration October 9

(Woodland, CA) – Do vampires send a thrill down your spine? Do werewolves make you howl with delight? Even if the paranormal world leaves you cold, you'll find something to set your taste buds ablaze at the Davis Branch Library and Davis Food Co-op's Sookie Stackhouse Halloween Party Cooking demonstration on Thursday, October 9 from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 East 14th Street in Davis.

Join Davis Food Co-op Education Coordinator Julie Cross and the supernaturally talented teaching kitchen staff as they "cook" another book! Watch with awe as they conjure up dangerously delectable Halloween party fare inspired by the fictional town of Bon Temps, Louisiana, the setting for author Charlaine Harris's bestselling Southern Vampire Mysteries series. The series features telepathic Halfling waitress, Sookie Stackhouse, and a cast of vampires, werewolves and other paranormal entities, and was adapted as the award-winning original HBO television series, "True Blood". Menu highlights include the Co-op's version of Caroline Holliday Bellefleur's Chocolate Cake and a champagne mocktail that would light up Club Dead! See how it's done, try samples and take home the recipes.

"Our Cook the Book series with the Davis Food Co-op is the perfect blend of education and entertainment," said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. "Community members can read the books and watch the series, then attend the cooking demonstration and become immersed in the world the author created, while learning new recipes and cooking techniques."

No reservations are required. The Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Branch Library is accessible for persons with disabilities. Presented by the Yolo County Library, all programs free.
