Cook up a Grinchy Good Time at the Davis Library December 9

(Woodland, CA) – “Every Who down in Whoville liked Christmas a LOT...” Celebrate Christmas in Whoville this season with the Yolo County Library, Acme Theatre Company and the Davis Food Co-op! The young and young-at-heart are invited to join in the celebration on Tuesday, December 9, 6:30-8:00 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis.

The evening’s activities will begin with a Reader's Theatre performance by the ACME Theatre Company of Dr. Seuss’s beloved holiday tale, How the Grinch Stole Christmas. Following the staged reading, the Davis Food Co-op’s Teaching Kitchen staff will demonstrate how to thaw even the Grinchiest of hearts by cooking up their version of the legendary feast, including Who-pudding, rare Who-roast beast and roast beets. Perhaps the Grinch himself will even carve the roast beast! See how it’s done, try samples and take home the recipes. Children will get to take home a Grinch activity packet to continue the fun!

“Want to grow your heart three sizes, just like the Grinch?” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “Bring a new, unwrapped toy for a child, age 0-12, to donate to the Toys for Tots drive. Practically one in every five residents of Yolo County lives below the federal poverty level. Please consider giving to this effort and making a difference in a child’s life.”

Starting now, the donation station will be at the library until the week of December 15. Last year, the Marines distributed more than 5,000 toys to local children throughout Yolo County through this effort.

No reservations are required. The Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Branch Library is accessible for persons with disabilities. Presented by the Yolo County Library, all programs free. For more information about this program, call (530) 757-5598.
