5. CCP Budget Update – Chief Cardall

Chief Cardall and CAO Blacklock met regarding the CCP Budget. For now, they agree we will need to wait and see what direction Prop. 47 will take us. Chief Cardall states we need to watch our dollars and see how, when and if Prop. 47 will affect our future funding. Chief also mentioned that both the Chief Probation Officers of CA (CPOC) and the California State Association of Counties (CSAC) are involved in both AB 109 and Prop. 47 as to how the State funding of both will work out for counties. Chief states all counties are going to suffer when our numbers start being reduced with the passage of this new proposition. Sheriff Prieto gave a short update on Prop. 47 and the impact on his department as it relates to the recent influx of inmate releases. The bottom line for Prop 47 - it comes down to the final decisions made by our Judges. Chief reiterated we need to be very frugal at this time and see how funding will work in the near future.

6. Proposition 47 Discussion and Planning – All

Chief Cardall explained the CCP workgroup is getting a head start on Prop. 47. Chief Cardall will have his staff supervise high risk to moderate risk misdemeanor offenders per their terms and conditions. DA Reisig states that this population of offenders is going to have to desire change and motivation since we will not have court mandated tools to enforce on the offender.

After much discussion regarding Proposition 47 Chief Cardall called a meeting to discuss Misdemeanor Sentencing matters. Meeting set for tomorrow, December 9th, beginning at 2:30 p.m. in the County CAO Conference Room. Lisa Howard will send out calendar invitation this afternoon.
