April Public Forums for Input on Services for Low-Income Residents

(Woodland, CA) – The Yolo County Community Services Action Board, in coordination with the Yolo County Department of Employment & Social Services, is in the process of planning programs for the 2015 and 2016 Community Services Block Grant funding cycle. As part of that process, they will be holding the following public forums to seek input on services for low-income residents which will be used to set service priorities for the program:

Tuesday, April 14, 5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Department of Employment & Social Services, Community Room
25 N. Cottonwood Street in Woodland

Thursday, April 16, 5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Department of Employment and Social Services, Community Room
500-A Jefferson Street in West Sacramento

Tuesday, April 21, 5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
St. Martin's Episcopal Church, Room 6 & 7
640 Hawthorn Lane in Davis

Thursday, April 23, 5:00 p.m. – 6:00 p.m.
Yolo County Housing
62 Shams Way in Winters

“The Community Services Block Grant program is designed to provide a range of services to assist low-income people in attaining the skills, knowledge and motivation necessary to achieve self-sufficiency,” said Yolo County Board of Supervisors Chair Matt Rexroad. “The program also provides low-income individuals with immediate life necessities such as food, shelter and health care.”

“The public is invited to attend the forums and give input on service needs in Yolo County,” said Yolo County Health & Human Services Agency Director Joan Planell. “The information gathered in these forums will be used to set service priorities for the Community Services Block Grant program.”
