

Free Gardening Class in Woodland April 2015!!

The Hanna and Herbert Bauer Memorial Community Garden is hosting a “Composting” class for beginner gardeners.

Wednesday, April 29th from 5-6:30 pm

- ❖ Learn the basics of making hot compost
- ❖ Introduction to the art of compost tea making
- ❖ Topics include harvesting finished hot compost, using hot compost in the garden for improving the soil, using finished compost tea in the garden for improved plant and soil nutrition, and making a new batch of compost tea
 - ❖ Bring gloves and shoes that can get a little dirty in the garden
 - ❖ Be willing to do some work!
- ❖ Benefits include access to finished compost and compost tea to use in your plot!

Class taught by Garden “Guru” David Linebarger

Join us for this FREE class!

Class Location: Yolo County Health Services Department, 137 N. Cottonwood Ave in Woodland. The garden is on the west side of the building. We will meet inside the garden gates on the cement pad by the picnic tables. Heavy rain cancels the class!

To register (required): Please contact Robin Rocksvold at robin.rocksvold@yolocounty.org or via phone at 530-666-8528.

Community gardens increase access to healthy foods, strengthen community relationships, provide a way for residents to be active outdoors, and offer enriching educational opportunities. Contact the garden coordinator to learn more about the garden programs and available plots.

