New Teen eReading Room added to the Yolo County Library website

(Woodland, CA) - The Yolo County Library has expanded online services for teens with a new digital collection website. Through a partnership with OverDrive, Inc., Teen eReading Room is now available at <http://yolocounty.lib.overdrive.com>. This is a free service and teens can borrow items through their Yolo County Library card.

The eReading Room provides a virtual environment for teens to browse and check out e-books and e-audiobooks. Content is customized for the teen audience with thousands of titles available. Teens can search by subject, collection, or reading level. Viewers can also 'sample' a book by reading the first few pages.

The Teen eReading Room is part of the Yolo County Library's main OverDrive website which has more than 7,000 digital titles for all ages. OverDrive, Inc. has tools such as OverDrive Help to ease new users through the website.

The Yolo County Library promotes reading for all ages through all types of mediums and platforms. The Teen eReading room is made possible through the support of the community, the efforts of library staff, and partnership with OverDrive, Inc.
