Pajama Storytime Tuesdays at the Davis Branch Library

(Woodland, CA) – Put on your favorite PJs, grab your slippers and head over to the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library on Tuesday nights at 6:30 p.m. for Pajama Storytime!

Pajama Storytime will be held in the Children’s Activity Room of the library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis, which is accessible for persons with disabilities. This program is free to attend and geared towards children ages 3-5. No reservations are required and all families are welcome.

Attendees are encouraged to bring a pillow and their favorite stuffed animal to cuddle with as they listen to stories, sing songs and participate in fun activities, including yoga stretches before bedtime. Children can choose a book from the library’s themed display to take home and read before bed.

“One way that parents can engage their children in pre-literacy skill building is with book reading,” said Yolo County Librarian Patty Wong. “The library offers a variety of fun opportunities, such as Pajama Storytime, for children to read, listen and grow.”

The Yolo County Library supports children’s programming and increasing a child’s lexical diversity through enriching literacy and group participation opportunities.
