Esparto Regional Library Celebrates Fifteenth Birthday

(Woodland, CA) – The Esparto Regional Library, located at 17065 Yolo Avenue in Esparto, is celebrating its 15th birthday with a ‘Fifteen Years, 15 Books’ challenge.

The ‘Fifteen Years, 15 Books’ challenge runs from November 2015 through April 2016. To enter, register at the Esparto Regional Library to receive a reading log. Once you have read and recorded 15 books, return the log to the library before April 2016 to receive a free book bag.

‘Fifteen Years, 15 Books’ recognizes the library’s current location and all the services this library has brought to the community. Before the building’s construction in 1999, the Esparto Regional Library had no permanent home and inhabited multiple locations including the drugstore of Mr. W.W. Harris, Vierra’s real estate and insurance office, Southern Pacific’s train depot and the Esparto Union High School.

Through the many efforts and collaborations between the Yolo County Library, the Friends of the Esparto Regional Library and library supporters, and with donations from Mamie Dixie Keisler, the Yocha Dehe Wintun Nation, the California State Library and the community, more than one million dollars was raised to build the Esparto Regional Library at its current location.

Fifteen years later, the Esparto Regional Library has provided numerous programs and services with Yolo County library staff dedicated to the Esparto community. The Yolo County Library continues to work with the community to create a welcoming space for all to read and learn.

This celebration is possible through the support and commitment of Yolo County library staff and the Friends of the Esparto Regional Library. Come celebrate your love of learning and reading with ‘Fifteen Years, 15 Books’!
