Special Screening of “Inventing America: Conversations with the Founders”

(Woodland, CA) – Come join Yolo County’s Arthur F. Turner Community Library for a special screening of “Making a Nation: The Untold Story of the Declaration of Independence (1776)” on October 29 from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. at the library, located at 1212 Merkley Avenue in West Sacramento.

This 70 minute episode, based on factual information, is the first in the series, “Inventing America: Conversations with the Founders”. The episode highlights the origins of the Declaration of Independence through an imagined retrospective panel interview of key players that shaped America; Thomas Jefferson, John Adams and Benjamin Franklin, as well as John Dickinson, a delegate who refused to sign revealing conflict behind the historic event. Executive Producer Darell Schregardus will also discuss the production of this and upcoming episodes.

This special screening is presented by the Yolo County Library and the Friends of the West Sacramento Library, in partnership with Executive Producer Darell Schregardus. For more information about this event, contact Touger Vang at touger.vang@yolocounty.org.

No reservations are required and all programs are free to attend. The Arthur F. Turner Community Library is accessible for persons with disabilities.
