Virtual Author Visit with Andy Weir at Davis Branch Library November 10

(Woodland, CA) – Come join the Yolo County Library for a virtual discussion with Andy Weir, author of The Martian, on November 10 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis.

Board and raised in Davis, bestselling author Andy Weir will talk about his first published novel, The Martian, which was adapted for the screen and is currently showing in theatres, starring Matt Damon. Andy Weir began working as a programmer for Sandia National Laboratories when he was 15 years old and has been working as a software engineer ever since. He is a lifelong “space nerd” and a devoted hobbyist of subjects such as relativistic physics, orbital mechanics and the history of manned spaceflight.

This virtual discussion is made possible through an initiative with Library Talks that is able to bring authors to California libraries through shared video conferencing. Readers and enthusiasts are welcome to attend. This event is free and no reservations are required. For more information about this event or to submit questions early, contact Laura Benn at laura.benn@yolocounty.org.
