Celebrate the Davis Branch Library on December 12

(Woodland, CA) – Can you believe it has been five year since the renovation of Yolo County’s Mary L. Stephens Branch Library in Davis? Come help us celebrate on Saturday, December 12 from 1:00 to 4:00 p.m.!

All are invited to this special event which highlights the importance and evolution of the Davis Branch Library. The celebration will include a Library Services Fair from 2:00 to 4:00 p.m. in the Blanchard Room, library fact game with a gift basket raffle, ‘Library Love Letters’ display, Yolo County Library history exhibit, tours and more. First 5 California will also have a booth set up with free giveaways and activities highlighting the nationally acclaimed ‘Talk, Read, Sing’ program.

Special guests include City of Davis Poet Laureate Andy Jones, who will be Master of Ceremonies, and former County Librarian Mary Stephens-Dewall.

Join us for this free event, sponsored by the Yolo County Library, City of Davis and Friends of the Davis Library, and learn more about the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis. No reservations are required and the library is accessible for persons with disabilities.

For more information about this five year anniversary event, contact Joan Tuss at joan.tuss@yolocounty.org. For more information about the Yolo County Library, visit: www.yolocounty.org or connect with the library on Facebook at: www.facebook.com/yolocountylibrary.org.
