Test Prep Database Available through Yolo County Library

(Woodland, CA) – Are you looking for free resources on how to take exams like the SAT or search for colleges or technical schools? Then visit the Testing and Education Reference Center (TERC) through the Yolo County Library!

TERC is an online database of more than 300 e-books and practice tests designed to help students in high school, college and graduate school. The database includes information on over 4,000 accredited schools, including resources on technical schools, practice certifications and license exams, as well as more than $8 billion in available scholarships.

The database includes the following test information on high school, graduate, international and college tests:

- CAHSEE, GED
- MCAT, GMAT, LSAT, GRE
- TOEFL, TOEIC, U.S. Citizenship
- ACT, SAT, PSAT, AP Exams

TERC also provides resources for job seekers such as a resume builder with over 1,000 brainstorming phrases and job searching tips, with career modules covering subjects from career change to salary negotiations and basic computer skills. Additionally, e-books are available through the database for career exams in fields including cosmetology, auditing, law enforcement, military, medical, real estate, social work and more.

To access this substantial database, visit www.yolocountylibrary.org, and select the Testing and Education Reference Center icon near the bottom of the screen. For more information about the Yolo County Library or TERC visit: www.yolocountylibrary.org or connect with the Yolo County Library on Facebook at: www.facebook.com/yolocountylibrary.org.
