Free winter fruit tree care workshop in Woodland

Hosted by The Hanna and Herbert Bauer Memorial Community Garden

Saturday, February 6th, 10 am – 11:30 am

Class taught by a UC Master Gardener of Yolo County

- ❖ Get tips on selecting and planting bare root fruit trees in your home orchard
- ❖ Learn how proper training and pruning techniques enhance fruit production
- ❖ Discuss the importance of timing on fruit tree planting, training and pruning

RSVP Required. To register, please contact Robin Rocksvold at 530-666-8528 or at robin.rocksvold@yolocounty.org. Events are free to all who attend. This class will be held in the garden orchard, on the West side of the Bauer building at 137 N. Cottonwood Ave, Woodland CA. Steady rain cancels the class. For more information about the UC Master Gardeners - Yolo County please visit: <http://ceyolo.ucanr.edu/> and for more information about the garden, please visit www.yolocounty.org/garden.

Plan ahead!

Please bring water, something to take notes with, and warm clothes suitable for outdoor use. The orchard may be muddy, so please wear appropriate shoes.
