Terms and Conditions

1. The personal gate access code and/or electronic key card are for individual use. Codes and key cards are non-transferrable and shall not be shared, loaned, or sublet to anyone not listed on this specific agreement. Sub-contractors, subletters, lessees or visitors shall apply for and be issued their own unique gate access code.
2. The personal gate access code shall not be stored or recorded anywhere that may be accessed by any other individual. By signing this agreement, you agree that it is your personal responsibility to keep your gate access code and electronic key card safe.
3. No person shall knowingly or willfully allow an unauthorized person access to the nonpublic areas of the airport property.
4. All tenants agree that they have read the Airport Rules for Tenants and Visitors (YCC §4-5.101-1006), including indemnifying the County from liability arising from the use of the airport.
5. Should your personal gate access code or electronic key card be lost, stolen, or otherwise compromised, you shall immediately notify the airport manager.
6. The electronic key card is the sole property of Yolo County and is your responsibility to return the electronic key card and/or gate access code upon termination of a permissible access relationship with the Yolo County Airport, or upon demand by the issuing authority.
7. Lost or damaged electronic key cards will be charged $40.00 for replacement, unless due to defect.

I have read the above terms and conditions. I agree that I will abide by all state and federal law and affirm I will follow all airport rules and regulations established by the County of Yolo. Any misuse of the gate access code or electronic key card is grounds for cancellation of my access privileges. I understand that if I violate the terms and conditions, that I may be individually liable for any damage done on the airport property due to my personal gate access code or electronic key card being compromised.
