Virtual Author Visit with Patrick Rothfuss at the Davis Branch Library

(Woodland, CA) – Join the Yolo County Library for a virtual discussion with Patrick Rothfuss, author of the Kingkiller Chronicle trilogy, on May 11 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis.

Born and raised in Madison, Wisconsin, bestselling author Patrick Rothfuss will discuss his blockbuster fantasy series, the Kingkiller Chronicle. Patrick's first novel in the trilogy, The Name of the Wind, was a 2007 Quill Award winner and a Publishers Weekly Best Book of the Year. The sequel, The Wise Man's Fear, debuted at #1 on The New York Times bestseller chart and won the David Gemmell Legend Award. Lionsgate is currently adapting this bestselling series into a television show and movie.

This virtual discussion is made possible through an initiative with Library Talks that is able to bring authors to California libraries through shared video conferencing. Readers and enthusiasts are welcome to attend, listen and ask questions. This event is free and no reservations are required. For more information about this event, or to submit questions early, contact Laura Benn at laura.benn@yolocounty.org.
