Health & Human Service Agency Hosts Job Fair June 23 (Job Fair Preparation Event June 6)

(Woodland, CA) – More than 40 employers will gather in Woodland on June 23 to offer jobs to those seeking employment. Prior to that, on June 6, the Yolo County’s Health & Human Services Agency will be available to help job seekers prepare for the job fair.

Employment services experts will be on hand on June 6 from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Yolo County Health & Human Services Agency, located at 25 N. Cottonwood Street in Woodland, to help job seekers succeed at the job fair, including tips for properly completing job applications, preparing resumes and nailing the interview. Those interested in attending the prep event are encouraged to RSVP at: www.signupgenius.com/go/20f054eabaf22abfa7-howtoget.

On June 23, the job fair will be held from 9:00 a.m. to noon at the same location. Participating employers include the Bureau of Reclamation, Auto Zone, California Highway Patrol, Clark Pacific, Allied Barton Security Services, DMG MORI, Goodwill Industries, Mariani Nut Company, Road Dogs, San Francisco Spice Company, Social Security, Motel 6, St. John’s Retirement Village, Teichert and Sons and Home Depot. Employment opportunities include machine tool engineers, application specialists, software designers, service technicians, administrative personnel, retail and warehouse workers, sorters and assembly line personnel, security and patrol officers, bus and truck drivers, cement workers, home healthcare associates and many more.

“The job fair is a popular annual event in Woodland that has resulted in numerous employment opportunities for job seekers,” said Art Rodriguez, Yolo County Health & Human Services division manager. “I am happy to report we continue to add participating employers to the event who are ready to hire.”
