SafeTALK: This 4-hour training helps prepare community members to identify persons with thoughts of suicide and connect them to suicide first aid resources. The class is open to anyone fifteen (15) years of age, or older.

Youth Mental Health First Aid: This is an 8-hour public education program which introduces participants to the unique risk factors and warning signs of mental health problems in adolescents. This course is open to anyone age eighteen (18) or older who regularly works or interacts with youth.

Mental Health First Aid for Adults: This interactive 8-hour course is basic in design to help inform the general public about mental health concerns and offer ways to support others in our community, while helping to reduce stigma surrounding mental illness. This course is open to anyone age eighteen (18) or older.
