

Suicide Prevention marks 50 years

By Special to The Enterprise August 14, 2016

Suicide Prevention and Crisis Services of Yolo County will celebrate its 50th anniversary from 3 to 5 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 24, at the Davis Odd Fellows Hall, 415 Second St. The event will celebrate SPYC's 50 years of service, providing crisis prevention and intervention, education and community outreach services to the residents of Yolo County.

Co-hosted by the Davis Rebekahs and moderated by Jim Provenza, chairman of the Yolo County Board of Supervisors, the event also will honor former volunteer Betsy Marchand, as well as additional individuals and businesses that have played a significant role in the organization's history. Dignity Health Woodland Healthcare is the major sponsor for the event.

A reception begins at 3 p.m., followed by the program at 4 p.m. Catering will be provided by Anderson Family Catering. The suggested donation is $50. To reserve your space, or for more information, visit SPYC's website at www.SuicidePreventionYoloCounty.org, or call the SPYC business office at 530-756-7542.
