Senator Wolk to Speak on Aid-In-Dying Law at Davis Branch Library

(Woodland, CA) – Join the Yolo County Library for a special program with Senator Lois Wolk on October 22 from 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. in the Blanchard Room of the Mary L. Stephens Davis Branch Library, located at 315 E. 14th Street in Davis.

The senator will speak about California's aid-in-dying law, or End of Life Option Act, and then host an open Question and Answer session with the audience. Wolk was one of the authors of this landmark act that provides mentally competent, terminally ill adults the option of requesting a doctor's prescription for aid-in-dying drugs to shorten their dying process.

Wolk has authored over 100 new laws over her 12 years of serving in the California State Legislature and has tackled difficult issues such as water, end-of-life care, firearm violence prevention, flood management, elder abuse, political reform, transportation and health. She represents the Third Senate District which includes all of Napa and Solano Counties, most of Yolo County, parts of Sonoma and Contra Costa Counties and Isleton in Sacramento County.

This event is free and no reservations are required. For more information about this event contact Joan Tuss at joan.tuss@yolocounty.org.
