

FREE GARDENING CLASS: The Magic of Soil

Composting and Cover cropping for improved soil fertility

The Hanna and Herbert Bauer Memorial Community Garden is hosting a gardening class that is open to everyone!

Wednesday, November 30, 12 – 1:15 pm

Instruction from 12 – 1 pm; Q&A until 1:15

You will learn.....

- ❖ How soil health improves crop yield and plant health
- ❖ The relationship between soil fertility and nutritional benefits of crops
 - ❖ How and when to apply compost for improved soil fertility
 - ❖ The ins and outs of cover cropping
 - ❖ How to manage pests through soil health

This is a hands on class in the garden, please dress accordingly

Class taught by Garden Manager, David Linebarger

Join us for this FREE class!

Class Location: Yolo County Health and Human Services Department Bauer Building, 137 N. Cottonwood Ave in Woodland. The garden is on the west side of the building. We will meet inside the garden gates at the picnic tables under the pergola. Remember to bring sun protection and water!

To register (required): Please contact David Linebarger at david.linebarger@yolocounty.org or via phone at 530-666-8429 by Tuesday, November 29, 2016.