

Avenues

TO REPORT WORKPLACE ISSUES

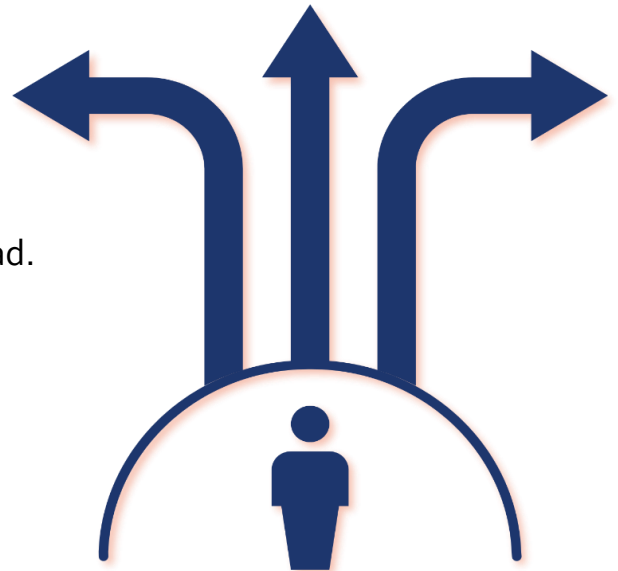

There are many avenues for reporting workplace issues.

Employees are Yolo County's most valuable asset. It is important that your employment experience is positive, supportive, and enables you to provide the best possible service to the public we serve.

WE WANT TO HEAR ABOUT AND ADDRESS YOUR CONCERNS THROUGH WHATEVER AVENUE WORKS BEST FOR YOU.

To report fraud, harassment, discrimination, or other workplace issue, please take advantage of any of the following reporting methods:

- Talk to your supervisor, manager, or department head.
- Contact Human Resources at 530-666-8055.
- Call Yolo County's toll-free Fraud Hotline 1-833-416-6434 • 24 hours a day, 7 days a week.
- Send a confidential message to Human Resources through the NAVEX reporting portal.
This site is hosted on NAVEX's secure servers and is not part of the Yolo County website or intranet. More information on the Department of Financial Services Fraud, Waste, Abuse and Whistleblower Hotline webpage.*
- Contact your union/association representative.

Are you frustrated with a situation?

Do you have suggestions for improvements?

Got concerns or questions?